

PCAM Air Show

18-20 August 2006

Santa Rosa, CA – KSTS

Cadets and Senior Members are needed to perform flight line security and other tasks at the Pacific Coast Air Museum's "Wings over Wine Country" air show, 18-20 August 2006 at Charles M. Schulz Sonoma County Airport (KSTS) in Santa Rosa, one hour north of San Francisco.

Antiques, war-birds, military, and contemporary aircraft will perform flybys and also park on the ramp for an up-close and personal look. One of the exciting features of the PCAM Air Show is the opportunity to touch and feel the awesome power and might of these historic machines which have meant so much to our history. For more info on the show, see PCAM's website:

Reporting: 1800-2200 Friday night, 18 August. We are on the field and fly-ins are welcome.

Dismissal: 1700 Sunday afternoon, 20 August. The show is over at 1600. We can let members go early if traveling long distances.

Cost: $10 – Includes a commemorative T-shirt and five meals. Cash, check, or money order payable to CAP Squadron 157.

Cadet Staff: We need at least four Flight Commanders and Flight Sergeants, plus a First Sergeant. To apply for staff, send typed cover letter and résumé with CAWGF31 (see below). Please include communications and medical training (ACUT, CPR, etc.). More staff positions may open depending on the number of cadets attending.

Seniors: We need seniors to perform security tasks and supervise cadets. Please use CAWGF31.

Meals: Pancake breakfast, hot dogs for lunch, and BBQ dinner on Saturday night are all provided to us. Snacks, drinks, and water are also provided. There are also many vendors selling food.

Billeting: Cadets will be in tents on the field. Seniors will be in the hangar. All members will take showers at a local high school on Saturday night.

To Apply: Send CAWGF31 (no F17 please) with all signatures and $10 to:

Anna Welter, C/2nd Lt, CAP
3526 Montgomery Drive
Santa Rosa, CA 95405

Deadline: 4 August for cadet staff; 13 August for cadets/seniors.
